Cleveland Water Main Break Fixed; Boil Alert Lifted

Old Mill, Ravenna, and Nature's Preserve Residents Only Affected Township Customers

Twinsburg Township, Summit County, Ohio – June 27, 2014 – The City of Cleveland early today, June 27, 2014, announced that the previously reported water main break in southeastern Twinsburg Township along the main line on Ravenna Road has been fixed. Less than 100 customers, mostly residential, along both sides of Old Mill and Ravenna Roads and streets in Nature's Preserve Subdivision (Eryn Place, Megan Meadow Drive, Nature's Preserve Drive, and Vitale Court), were affected. The previously issued boil alert has been lifted, meaning that all water flowing through the fixed water main is safe to drink. Questions should be directed to Cleveland Water customer service at (216) 664-2444.

The majority of Township is served by City of Cleveland Water/Twin-Keystone Water District (TKWD) water or individual wells, with the only Township water customers served by Akron Water including 16 homes on the north side of Fairway Boulevard. Please note that Akron Water customers were NOT affected by this water main break or this boil alert.

About Twin-Keystone Water District

Twin-Keystone Water District (TKWD) was established in 1966 per Chapter 6119 of the Ohio Revised Code as a regional water and sewer district, per a petition submitted by the Twinsburg Township Board of Trustees. TKWD is governed by Summit County Common Pleas Court Orders issued in 1966, 1967, 1968, 1970, 1979, 2006, and 2012. Formerly known as the Twinsburg Township Water and Sewer District, TKWD is overseen by a seven-member elected Board of Trustees that beginning in 2014 will transition to an appointed Board comprised of five members and two alternates. The purpose of TKWD is to provide a public water supply to the District. TKWD owns water lines throughout the District and currently contracts with the City of Cleveland to supply the water that flows through those lines. TKWD offices are located at Twinsburg Township Hall. For more information, contact Robert S. Kagler, Township Manager, via telephone at (330) 425-4497 or via e-mail at rkagler@twinsburgtwp.com.
